Your membership

Annual membership fees in the Ontario College of Trades:

- $120 for journeypersons and employers/sponsors
- $60 for apprentices, tradespersons and journeyperson candidates
- Lower than any other professional college in Ontario

How your money works for you

A College is about acting together. When professions regulate themselves –not relying on government–they're more responsive to the needs of industry and are stronger and more successful.

As a self-regulating body, the Ontario College of Trades is working with you (and for you) to:

- Promote the skilled trades in Ontario, including each profession and every tradesperson
- Expand opportunities for skilled trades, while promoting and maintaining your competitive advantage
- Ensure high standards of training and qualifications
- Protect the public from unqualified workers
- Expand future opportunities in all skilled trades
